The C. M. S. Yearbook has been named the 'SPHERE'. The sphere is a symbol of knowledge and experience. The 1976-77 yearbook staff has gained much knowledge and experience by working on this book. Just as the SPHERE is a continuous, never-ending circle, it is hoped that the yearbook will be a continuous, never-ending project for the C. M. S. Students.

Patty Friess and Joe Spaniola, co-editors of the yearbook, wish to thank the following - Mrs. West for encouraging us to explore the idea of having a yearbook. Mr. Ziegler for letting us have the yearbook. Mrs. Bartos for advising us and for all her many hours of hard work on the yearbook. We can't thank you enough. Mr. Clark for his help in taking pictures. Troy Jenkins for developing our pictures. The yearbook staff for their work. Last, but not least, Mr. Lewis' coke bottle which was the exact size of our zodiac signs.
